2009

The book is a joint project of the Ukrainian Fulbright Association and the Fulbright Program in Ukraine and includes presentations made during the 12th annual Fulbright conference held in Kyiv on December 18 - 19, 2009. It traces complicated and often controversial processes under way in Ukraine of today in the realms of nation-building, foreign policy, higher and secondary education, economics, science, and law. A special section addresses the legacy of Yuriy Lutsky whose 90th anniversary was celebrated in 2009 and who made a considerable input into developing Ukrainian humanities.

The book is intended for a broad audience - scholars, university professors, post-graduate students and everyone interested in the prospects of Ukrainian society development.
